Administration

Congratulations to the Class of 2008. You have all worked diligently to become successful high school graduates. The four years that you have spent at D-R have passed rapidly. All of the academic and extracurricular opportunities that you took advantage of have prepared you well for future career plans. Best wishes for continued success in your endeavors!

Dr. Francis J. Connor
Superintendent of Schools

"Anyone can give up, it's the easiest thing in the world to do. But to hold it together when everyone else would understand if you fell apart, that's true strength."

Eleanor Roosevelt

Dear Class of 2008:
Obviously, as our graduates of the Class of 2008, you certainly did not "give up." Congratulations!

Besides perseverance in academics, you have demonstrated many incredible artistic, athletic and personal accomplishments during the last four years. Many challenges and journeys still await you in college, technical school, the workplace, or in the military. Although you are indeed well prepared for the predictable future, keep your determination and resolve when life does throw you the capricious curveball; find your true inner strength.

We look forward to hearing about all of your many future successes. Keep in mind that we are only a phone call or e-mail away if you ever need assistance.

Ms. Gail Van Buren
Principal

To the Class of 2008:
As the four-year journey of high school ends, you leave Dighton-Rehoboth having etched your place in history and having accomplished a great many things. Indeed, we have enjoyed watching you mature, grow and achieve over the past four years. Personally, it has been a pleasure getting to know the unique characteristics and accomplishments of so many of you.

I hope that, as your lives continue, you remember the values and lessons that high school intended to teach you and become productive assets to your communities and society. I have but one earnest wish: that you live your lives in such a way that you reflect credit upon yourselves, families and community. I echo the sentiments of all of us in wishing you the best of luck.

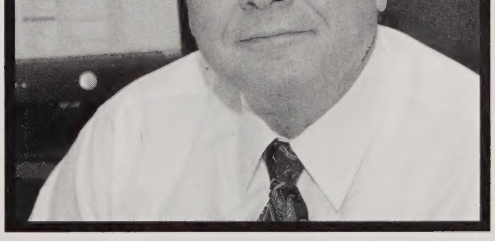
Mr. Michael Rubin
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2008:
It is probably tempting now to look back at your years in high school and try to figure out what it all has meant to you. To do so would be a tenuous endeavor at best. It is what you do in the future that will determine what it has meant. Often we are told that our choices, once made, can never be un-made. Our actions, once done, can never be un-done. Perhaps this is true, but I suspect that the outcomes of all those things you have done – good or bad, big or small, sources of pride and sources of shame – have not yet been decided. You have been given a great gift – a moment in life where you may reflect on the past, look into the future, and step foot into a world that is fresh and new. Make the most of it. Make the world proud of you.

Mr. Jonathan Evans
Assistant Principal

Four years ago you came to Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School as a freshman and as a member of the Class of 2008. You now leave this place as an alumnus. For that accomplishment you are to be congratulated and applauded. May the future bring you the very best of all things.

Mr. F. Leon Sibielski
Director of Guidance



Class of 2008:
You have had a great four years. Best wishes and good luck.

With Thanks And Best Wishes to Mr. Cute and Mr. Rose!

The Class of 2008 would like to thank this year's retirees for their dedicated years of service to Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School. The knowledge and words of wisdom you have imparted will always remain in our hearts. You will be greatly missed. Best wishes for a wonderful retirement!

To the members of the Class of 2008:

As graduation day approaches, I appreciate the opportunity to share with you a few pieces of wisdom, which appropriately came from the famous American golf champion, Lee Trevino.

"The harder I work, the luckier I get!" Don't let anyone fool you. No one gets to the top by cutting corners. The success that you experience in life will be in direct proportion to the attitude, passion and effort that you put into whatever endeavor you choose to follow.

"The Good Lord never gave anyone a full bag of clubs!" No one has it all. Everyone of us has positive qualities as well as areas that could stand improving. Take an honest inventory of what your strengths are, and use them to the fullest, while trying to develop those areas you have that are in need of fixing. In time you'll be glad that you did.

It is no secret that I have had a personal interest in your class since you started kindergarten back in 1995. We will both be beginning new chapters of life this fall, My best wishes to all of you for future success in whatever direction life takes you.

I have been fortunate not only to have taught at Dighton-Rehoboth for more than 30 years, but also to have been a student in the vocational school when D-R opened its doors in 1960. While technology has changed, one thing remains the same: teenagers are still teenagers. It has been a pleasure to work with young people and I hope that I have influenced them in a positive way.

One of my most pleasurable memories was teaching at D-R while my children attended school here, and being a part of their activities and sporting events. There are and have been so many wonderful people that I have been associated with during my teaching career, and many with whom I have formed lasting friendships. And there are those – particularly in the vocational school – with whom I worked closely, including former teachers who became colleagues and strangers who became friends. They are the core of the great educators here at D-R. I feel honored to have known and worked with them. I am also honored to have been able to share my expertise with so many wonderful students.

Though this chapter in my life comes to a close, I look forward to retirement for relaxation as well as new adventures and contributions. Thank you and God bless you all!

May 5, 1990. Softball, Portuguese Club, NHS. Our memories of yesterday will last forever. We'll take th best, forget the rest, & someday we'll find these are the best of times. I learned that things change, peopl change, & it doesn't mean you forget the past or try cover it up. It means that you move on & treasure th memories. I always knew we'd look back on our cry & laugh, but I never knew we'd look back on our laughter & cry. Love you girls.

SEASON SUMMARY
The 2007 season was a great success. We improved our offense by 200 percent, scoring twice the amount of goals compared with last year. The girls enjoyed an excellent season under the leadership of the three captains. Good chemistry contributed to the team's success. All three aspects of the game, including offense, defense, and goal keeping were much improved from previous years. The girls made it to the post-season tournament.

SEASON SUMMARY
Despite an inexperienced roster that was not highly regarded in the preseason, the 2007-2008 Falcons played an exciting, competitive brand of basketball defeating every team in the SCC at least once and taking the top two teams, Wareham and Seekonk, into overtime before succumbing, The young Falcons were tough at home with a 5-4 mark, but they struggled mightily on the road, finishing with a 2-9 record. Senior captains Nate Koneski and Jared Gregory were instrumental in developing an inexperienced squad into a cohesive unit. Nate was selected as an SCC All Star while Jared received Honorable Mention. The team finished in fourth place with a 7-9 mark in the SCC and 7-13 overall.

SEASON SUMMARY:
The Lady Falcons finished strong with wins over Apponequet and Bourne to even their record, and make states. Lyndsey Barbehenn had a winning conference record and became a two-time SCC All-Star. Monica Souza went 11-2 and earned SCC Honorable Mention along with Haley Manchester. Leslie Briggs returned after a year off and claimed the #2 standing slot, and Angie Shannon had another great year at #1 doubles, as she teamed with junior Kelsey Nokes to beat an ORR team. Sophomore Samantha Silvia rounded out the starting line-up with a stellar 12-3 season. Also contributing wins to the cause were sophomores, Emily Halliday and Alyssa McCarthy and Freshmen Yuliya Shamess.

The girls completed the season in a stong bid for an upset in the states going down to an always proficient Falmouth team 3-2.
